Is it time to break up with your bank?

Credit unions care about others – Financial institutions in the credit union industry have a track record for going the extra mile and investing in their local or under-served communities.

At the MS Hwy Safety Patrol Federal Credit Union you'll be treated the right way – Credit unions have a reputation for providing exceptional customer service to their members, as they are owned and operated by the members themselves. Your experience matters. Because of this, credit unions recognize the value of spectacular customer service and creating a positive member experience. Unlike banks, you won't be helped by a robot – you'll be assisted by a real human being from start to finish.

Money, money, money – Banks are notorious for hidden charges and fees, ranging from debit card usage fees to obscene overdraft charges to nonsensical ATM fees. Credit Unions will work with you on overdraft fees and because Credit Unions partner together, as a Credit Union member, you have access to the largest Surcharge FREE ATM Network-CU24. You want to spend your life with someone who truly cares about saving you money and invests in YOU, right?
