FRAUD AWARENESS! Be aware of potential fraudulent calls. Callers are identifying themselves as working for Visa. The caller then tries to convince the customer there has been fraudulent activity on the customer's account, and the caller may ask for online banking credentials or other personal information. Please note that neither the Credit Union nor Visa will ever call and ask for information such as the username or password to your online banking account, your social security number or your account number. If you receive a call from someone asking for any of this type of sensitive information, please reach out to us at 601-987-1290.
